

Dedication

Ahmedabad belongs to a state which with arms wide open and a big heart accepts all who come to its doors. Ahmedabad believes that all should be treated as family and that is why, even the rickshaw drivers become 'Bhai' and the vendor ladies become 'Ben'. The value of 'Vasudev kutumbakkam' is practiced here. This 5th edition of HAVOC is dedicated to the city of Ahmedabad.

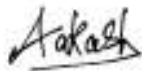

Ahmedabad is a unique city. Even though it has all the facilities, luxuries and comforts like those of metropolitan cities, certain flaws like excessive traffic and poor civic sense exist. Power cuts, though, are less than those in metropolitan cities like Mumbai and Delhi. Therefore, Ahmedabad's standard and quality of life is better than most cities in India.

So, we the editors of HAVOC 5, resolve to preserve the heritage of our city and strive to improve pollution and water scarcity in Aapnu Ahmedabad.

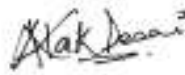

HAVOC 5 is out to spread the spirit of Eklavya. We have been given a platform by the school that has enabled us to open our wings and soar high to explore the world of education in great depth. Indian education system today is regarded as one of the best in the world and we must strive to relieve the students from stress and burden.

Being a part of this system as students in Eklavya, we probably have the best experience of the effects of its operation. So let's hold our hands to change what needs to be changed and to strengthen what is already the best.

We would also like to dedicate this issue of HAVOC 5 to our pledge to bring about a change in the education system of India.

Aakash Trivedi

Alak Desai

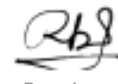

Meet Jetly

Parita Bhungani

Raina Kishor

Ram Iyer

Rhea Choksi

Saumya Mehta